CELINA SENIOR HIGH

Alma Mater

WE SING TO THE SCHOOL OF THE GREEN
AND THE WHITE,
THE SCHOOL WITH THE SPIRIT TRUE,
WE'LL EVER KEEP THY HONOR BRIGHT
AND PURE AS CRYSTAL DEW.

OF ALL WHO THROUGH THY HALLS HAVE PASSED,
WE'LL EVER MINDFUL BE,
AND WHILE LIFE'S FEEBLE FLAME SHALL LAST,
WE'LL TRUST THY LOYALTY.

WE ARE EVER BOUND TO CELINA HIGH,
BY BONDS SO TENDER AND DEAR,
UNABLE IS TIME TO SEVER THIS TIE,
AS ETERNITY DRAWS NEAR.

AS OUR ONWARD COURSE THROUGH LIFE WE TAKE,
WE'LL EVER HONOR THEE,
AND TO THY FAIR NAME WE'LL EVER TRUST
A GUIDING STAR TO BE.

CHORUS:

THEN RAISE YOUR JOYFUL VOICES HIGH, AND ALMA MATER SING, THY NAME WE'LL EVER GLORIFY,
AS FRUITS FROM THY LABOR WE BRING.

Foreword

Having watched other Seniors pass
To distant realms of time and place,
We know how quickly we can go,
Leaving no trace.

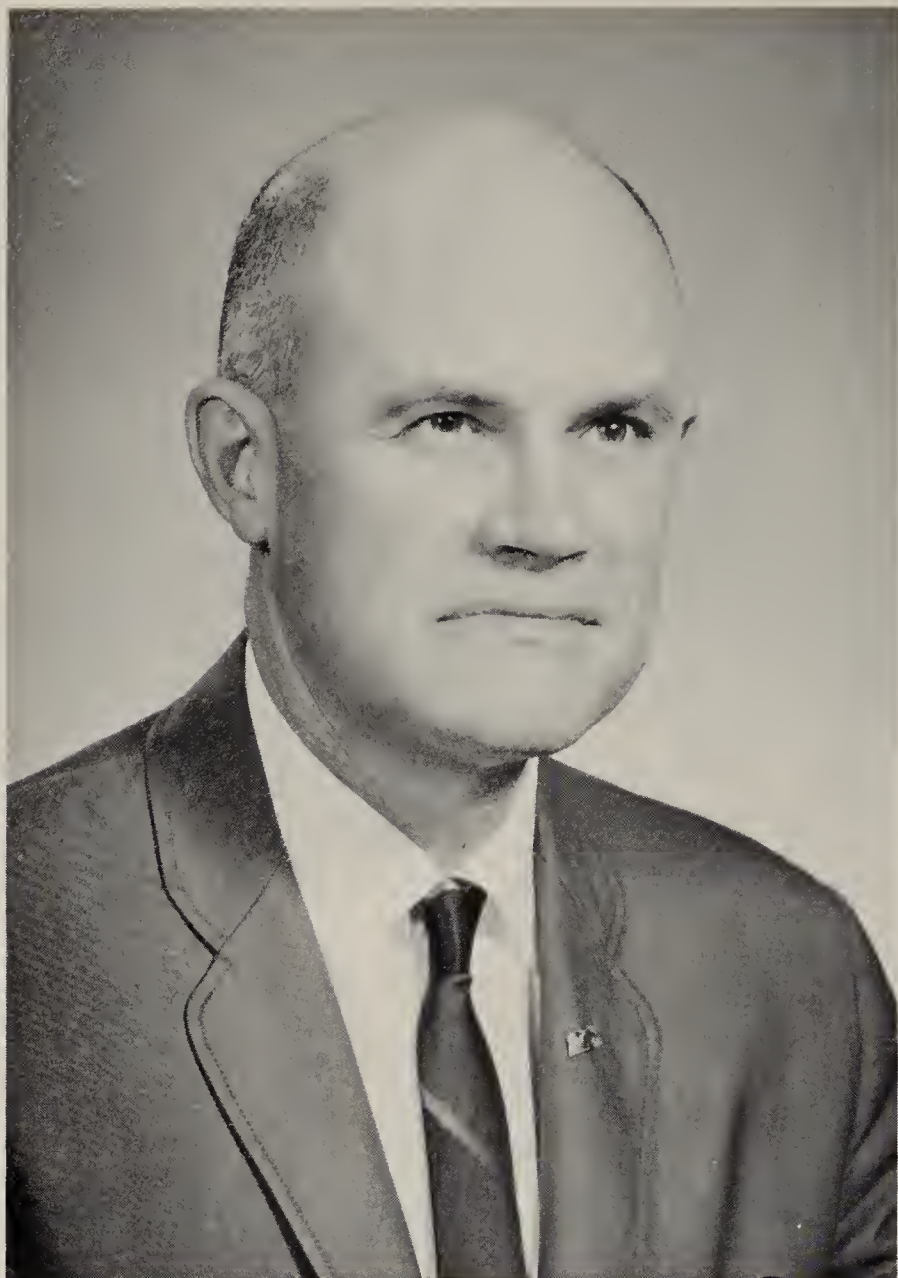

And, since we know from other years
How swift the flight of youth and fame,
We seek a place where we may pause
To write our name.

So, for the ones in days to come
Who will turn back with longing look,
Remembering our Senior days,
We leave this book.

Patty Gehle,
Editor

FACULTY

Mr. Mills

Mr. Ray Mills, our new superintendent, is a man whose achievements in the field of education are noteworthy.

He holds a B.S. from Wilmington College and an M.A. from Miami University. He has recently completed a year of graduate study in Curriculum Development and in School Business Management at Ohio State University.

Mr. Mills is experienced as a teacher, principal, curriculum director, director of pupil personnel services, and assistant superintendent. He has also served for eight years as superintendent of the Mount Gilead Exempted Village Schools.

He is presently a member of the Board of Directors of the Ohio Association of School Administrators and has received state and national awards for his contributions to education. In 1967, he was named to "Who's Who in American Education."

Mr. Mills has shown enthusiasm in his approach to his new position; he is a welcome addition to our community's school system.

Mr. Brandon

A good school must have a responsible principal, and in Mr. Robert Brandon, Celina Senior High School has much of which to be proud. Mr. Brandon devotes a tremendous amount of time to his work — us — as well as being active in the community. He is easily accessible to students as well as to the faculty, and often is in conference with students and teachers.

Mr. Brandon was graduated from Manchester College with a B. S. degree, and obtained his Master of Science degree from Indiana University. He has the background and the experience necessary for a good principal; CSHS owes much to him.

Mrs. Iris White, Mr. Brandon's secretary, is an indispensable aid to all of us at CSHS. She efficiently performs the many tasks necessary to keep our school organized, and she is the one to whom everyone turns when he needs information, supplies, or even an aspirin. Mrs. White received a B. A. from Denison University and was graduated from Dickinson Secretarial School.

School Board

Sitting: Mr. Russell Laffin, Dr. Louis J. Finkelmeier, President; Mr. Don M. Purdy. Standing: Mr. Wilson Warrick, Mr. Robert Harbage.

Our school board, composed of men in whom the community has demonstrated trust and confidence by electing them to their posts, is the main policy-making body in the school system. These men, all well respected in Celina, have capably handled the situations which have arisen during the past year. It is due to their competence that our schools are run so efficiently, for the school board is the channel through which all important business must pass. We owe a debt of gratitude to these fine people.

Miss Erma Evans has been invaluable in her position as clerk of the school board. Her efficiency and her dedication to her work has made her one of the school's most highly respected assistants.

Mrs. Ida VanCamp

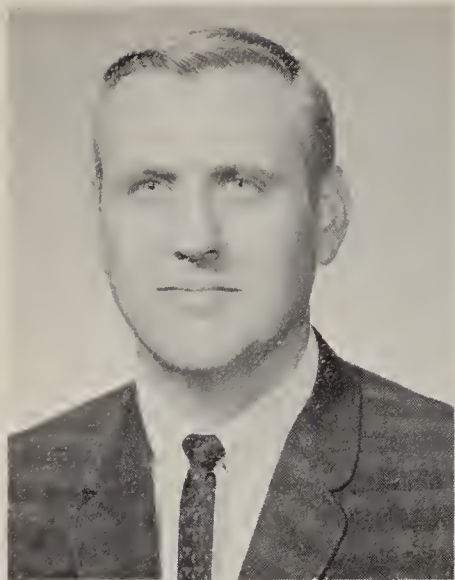

Mr. Ron Holstein

In a school of our size, the principal can't deal as intimately with the students as can the counselors, Mrs. Ida VanCamp and Mr. Ronald Holstein; they are always prepared to help students with their problems or with questions concerning colleges, scholarships, and scholastic grants. So that our administration is not bogged down by details which must be attended to each day, it is assisted by the office staff, which consists of responsible students. The staff acts as the "long arm of the law," often running all over the building to perform their various tasks.

Row 1: Mrs. VanCamp, P. Adams, D. Wilson, B. Beckstedt, L. Slusser, B. Brandts, J. Sexton, Mrs. White, Mr. Holstein.
Row 2: Mr. Brandon, D. Bath, E. Wenning, S. Frahm, J. Frahm, P. Piper, A. Nevergall. Row 3: J. Reist, K. Schweizer, J. Muther, D. Dumbauld, P. Fahncke, D. Luth, S. McIlroy.

Mr. Wayne Ambrose — Kent State University, Ashland College — B.S. in Education, Bowling Green State University—M.Ed.; General English III, Speech.

The medium through which much of the world communicates is English, and if we pay attention to these dedicated people, we know how broad the subject of English really is. It includes grammar and usage, literature, mechanics, and even social graces.

English

Mrs. Dianne Caywood — B.S. in Education, Bowling Green State University; French I and II, Journalism, Ac. English I, French I, II.

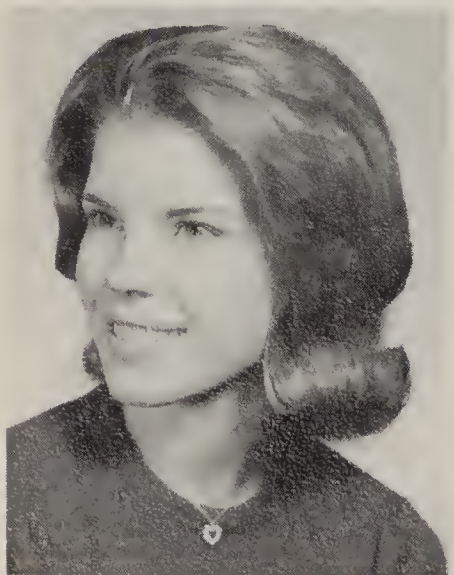

Mrs. Elizabeth McClure — University of Wisconsin — B.A., Additional courses at Ohio Northern; Ac. English III, IV.

Miss Sharon Roberts — Ball State University — B.S. in Education, B.A. in English and Journalism; General English I, Ac. English I.

Miss Faith Faulkner — Lee's Junior College — A.A., Eastern Kentucky University — A.B.; Ac. English I, II, General English II.

Mrs. Jean Sisco — Bowling Green State University — Bachelor of Science in Education; General English I, Ac. English I.

Mrs. Louise Cain Halsey — B.S. in Education, M.Ed., Miami University, Attended DePauw University, Ohio Northern University; Ac. English II, General English II.

Mrs. Myra Nolan — Indiana University — B.S. in Education; Ac. English I, Ac. English III.

Mr. C. Dennis Ransbottom — Ohio University-B.F.A., Indiana State College, Indiana University; Music Appreciation, Theory, Madrigal, Varsity, Freshman, Mixed, Men's Chorale, Chorus.

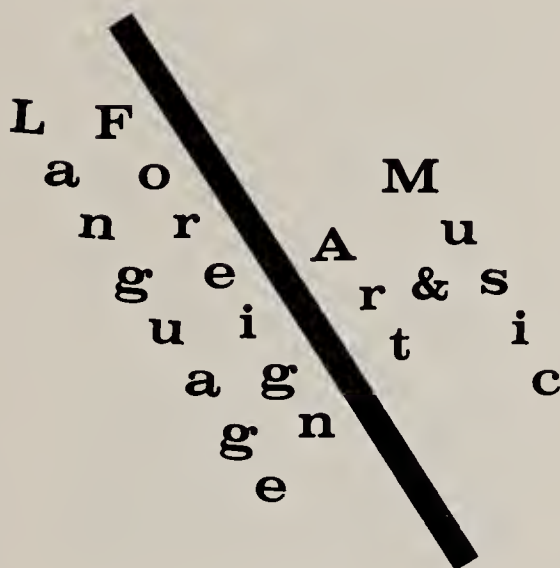

The courses dealing with the fine arts were this year broadened in many respects. Theory and music appreciation were added as well as a new choir (madrigal) and a new band (stage band) in our music department. Our art department has also tried its hand at scenery-making and art competition.

Mr. Hugh Callison — Michigan State University, Olivet Nazarene College, Bachelor of Science in Music Education; Band Instructor.

Mr. John Roth — St. Joseph College, B.A. in History; Latin I, II.

Mrs. Barbara Harbage — Ohio State University, B.S. in Education; Art I, II, III, IV.

Mrs. Alice Hellwarth — Ohio State University, Bachelor of Science in Education; Spanish I, II, Speech.

Of the three foreign languages taught at Celina Senior High School, Latin is the classical, fundamental language, and French, and Spanish are the conversational and very modern languages. All three teachers are interested in having their students work on projects and reports which are helpful in teaching the language or its background.

Mrs. Dianne Caywood — B.S. in Education, Bowling Green State University; French I and II, Journalism, Ac. English I.

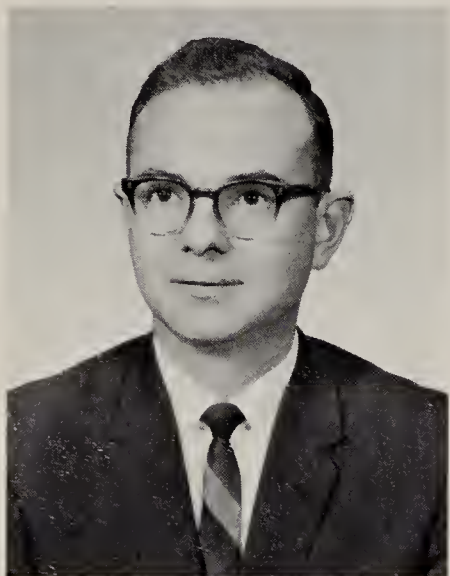

Mr. Arthur Elam — Ball State University — B.S., Indiana University M.S.; Physics, Geometry, Advanced Science, Ticket Advisor.

Science is the orderly accumulation of facts, and these people try to teach us those facts in an orderly fashion, though science classes are often the ones "where the action is". Every year sees someone try to blow up the chemistry lab or donate to someone's lunch the remains of a dissected frog.

Mr. Larry Munch — Bluffton College, B.S.; Chemistry.

Mr. John Essex — Defiance College — B.A., Ohio State University, Purdue University; Biology, Advanced Science.

Science

Mr. David Rees — Purdue University — B.S.; General Science, Biology.

Mrs. Norma Dean — George Peabody College, B.S. in Chemistry; General Science.

Science is a wide and free field, since it may include people or animals or plants, then may jump to rocks, or electricity, or to a law of nature. Everyone can find some part of science which interests him.

Mr. Gary Whitaker — Bowling Green State University, B.S. and Master of Education; Health, Sophomore Class Advisor.

Mrs. Lola Crown — Ohio State University, B.S. in Agriculture (Home Economics); Home Economics I, Home Management.

The vocational department at CSHS is set up to teach particular skills and to put these skills into use in practical situations. This is why the home economics classes have labs, the vocational training courses have COE and DCT, and the wood working and other craft courses have shops.

V C o c a t i o n a l C o u r s e s

Miss Jane Eichenauer — Bowling Green State University — B.S., Home Economics Education, University of Colorado, Colorado State University, Ohio State University, Bluffton College; Home Economics II, III, IV.

Mr. Roger Eversole — Bowling Green State University, B.S. in Education; Law and Sales, Co-op.

Mr. Clair Jones — Ohio State University, B.S. and M.S.; Vo-Ag. I, II, III, IV.

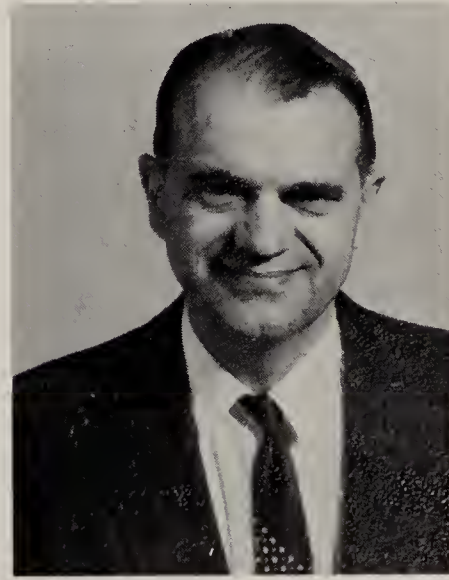

Mr. Charles Dilbone — Ohio State University, B.S. in Agriculture; DCT.

Mr. J. Philip Moore — Miami University, Oklahoma A & M — B.S.; Mechanical Drawing, Electronics, Power Mechanics.

Mr. Royce Kittle — John Brown University, Western Kentucky College, Miami University, Ball State, Ohio Northern U., B.S. in Education; Wood Shop I, II, III.

Mr. Richard Crown — Ohio State University — B.A.E., Ball State University — M.A.; Metals, I, II, III.

Mrs. Lucille Keifer — Wayne State Teacher's College — B.A.; Typing I, Business English.

The commercial world is a growing and a prosperous one; its leaders need to be educated in their fields. Through the efforts of these people, future businessmen and women are initiated into the mysteries of typing, business law, shorthand, and the other facets of business.

Miss Jeannette Schultz — Ohio State University, B.S. in Education; Shorthand I, General Business.

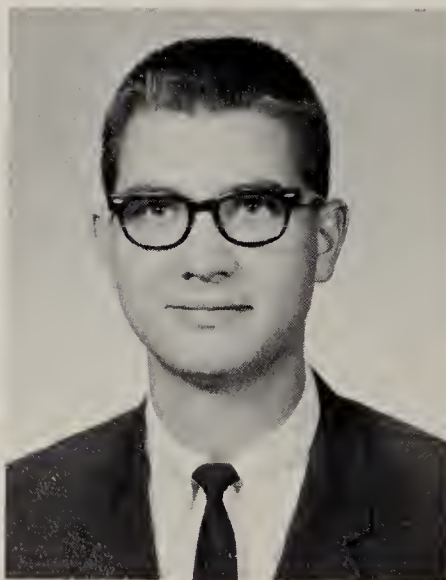

Miss Elsie Bair — Bowling Green State University, B.S. in Education, M.S. at Indiana University, Findlay College; Secretarial and Clerical Office Practice.

B u s i n e s s

Mr. William Feth — Findlay College — B.S. Indiana University — M.S.; Bookkeeping I, II; Junior Class Advisor.

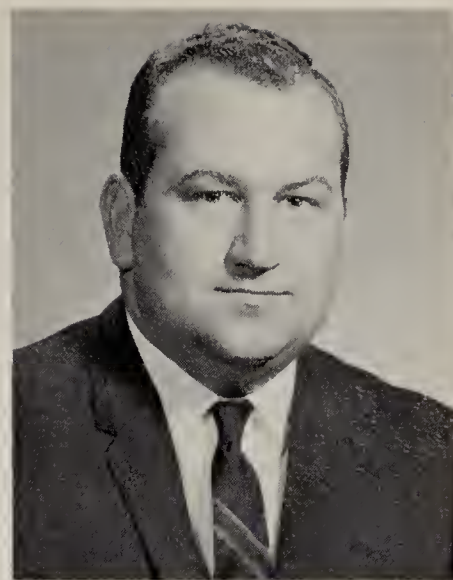

Mr. Roger Eversole — Bowling Green State University, B.S. in Education; Law and Sales, Co-op.

Mr. John Kunkler — Kent State University, B.S. in Secondary Education; American History A.

Covering many aspects of our life and history is the term "social studies", and even in four years we can't learn as much as is covered by this field, though our class instructors try to help us accomplish this feat. Starting as freshmen with civics and working through world and American history, we finally study the government and our nation's economics in our Senior year.

Mr. Kenneth Feters — Huntington College, B.S. in Education; World History, American History.

Mr. Ronald Mendenhall — Ohio Northern University — B.S., Ball State University; American Government, Economics, Senior Class Advisor.

S t u d i e s S o c i a l

Mr. Glen Noble — Defiance College — B.S.; Civics, World History B.

Mr. William White — Denison University — B.A., University of Cincinnati — M.A.; World History A, Economics, American Government.

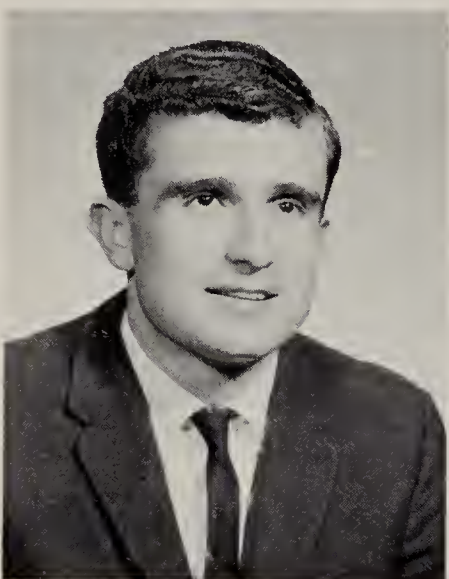

Mr. Donald Benjamin — Arizona State University, B.A. in Education; Advanced Algebra, Analysis, Calculus, Algebra I.

Mathematics, the science of numbers and logic, is the course these men teach in various forms, from Algebra I to Calculus. For many, numbers have come alive and become vitally interesting through their work.

Mr. Lester Bowsher — Ohio Northern University, B.S. in Education, Ohio State University, Denison University, Ohio Wesleyan, Ball State U., St. Francis College M.S.; Geometry, Algebra I.

Mr. Richard Stetler — Manchester College, B.S. in Education; Senior Math, Geometry, Advanced Algebra, Junior Class Advisor.

M a t h

Mr. Donald Ritchie — Miami University, B.S. in Education; Algebra, General Math, Freshman Class Advisor.

Mr. Arthur Elam — Ball State University, B.S. in Education, Indiana University, M.S. in Education; Physics, Geometry, Advanced Science, Ticket Advisor.

Mr. Wayne Ambrose — Kent State University, Ashland College — B.S., Bowling Green State University, M.A. in Education; General English III, Speech.

Mrs. Alice Hellwarth — Ohio State University, B.S. in Education; Spanish I, II, Speech.

Mrs. Alberta Brandon — Study Hall Advisor.

Study Hall Supervisor

Mrs. Dianne Caywood—Bowling Green State University, B.S. in Education; Journalism, French I, II, Ac. English I.

J & Speech

Journalism

Life at CSHS is a complicated one. Though we all participate in or make use of physical education, the library, or study halls, not everyone takes speech or journalism or drivers' education. These courses are not just period fillers—they contain fundamentals which are valuable to us all. In fact, the variety of choices from which a student can pick his electives is one of the reasons Celina Senior is such a growing school.

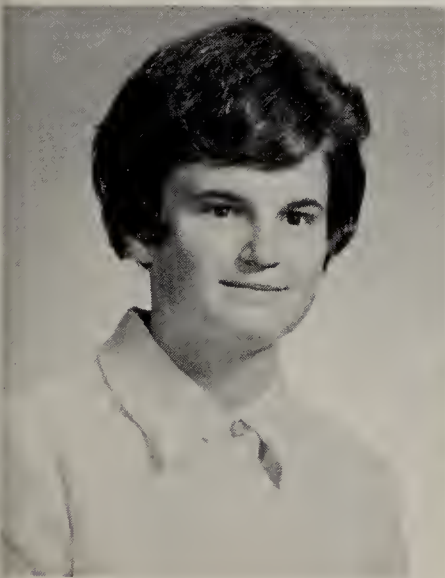

Drivers' Ed.

Mr. Dean White — Muskingom College — B.A.; Driver's Education.

Physical Education

Library

Miss Carol Sheer — Bowling Green State University, Physical Education — B.S.; Girls' Physical Education.

Mr. Jerry Smith — Defiance College, Olivet Nazarene College, B.S. in Physical Education; Boys' Physical Education.

Miss Linda Stauffer — Findlay College — B.A., University of Bible Seminary — B.A.; School Librarian.

Mrs. Iris Rodgers — Cincinnati — B.A.; Library Aid.

Service Personnel

Could school be compulsory without bus drivers to drive the students at a distance to the school, cooks to prepare delectable meals for the students, or janitors to keep the beautiful halls beautiful? These people are taken for granted by all of us yet they go about their jobs day by day so that our school days may be a little more pleasant. People such as these diligent workers deserve more praise and recognition than they receive.

Custodians

Mr. Harlamert, Mr. Tester, Mr. Monroe.

Cafeteria Staff

Mrs. Ruth Roettger, Supervisor; Mrs. Gladys Sibert, Mrs. Carol Jenkins, Mrs. Annabelle Siler, Mrs. Mabel Hare, Mrs. Betty Wellman, Mrs. Marie Willwrath.

AFS Student

Jose "Joe" Macedo is the American Field Service exchange student of the year 1968. He resides with Mr. and Mrs. James Rodgers and their two sons, Brian and Warren.

Joe came to us from Crucero, Peru, in South America. He lives with his brother, Hector, and his three sisters, Norma, Elizabeth, and Edith, in Puno, Peru, where his family members can obtain adequate education training.

Among the courses being taken by Joe are physics, English, analysis, and typing. He comments that he enjoys his classes very much. During the 1968 football season, Joe was an active football player.

Joe had no problem adapting to life on the Rodgers' farm. Although he misses his Peruvian family a great deal, he thinks that America is a splendid country and has been continuously eager to learn everything that he can about our people and their traditions.

Joe's hobbies range from hunting to writing poetry. His humble, friendly, open-minded character marks him as a valuable asset to our foreign exchange program.

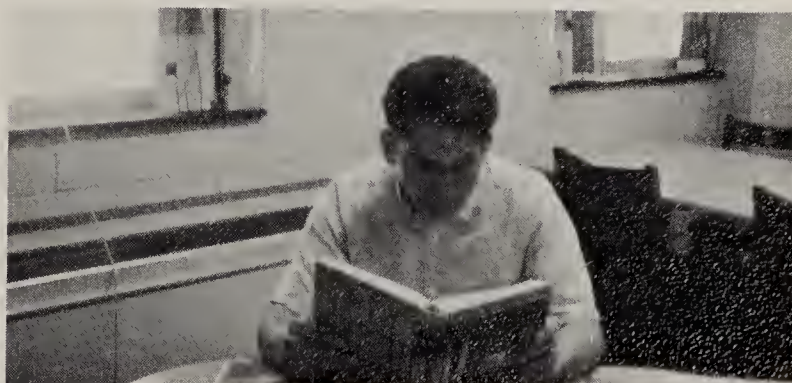

To him we wish the greatest of luck in the future.

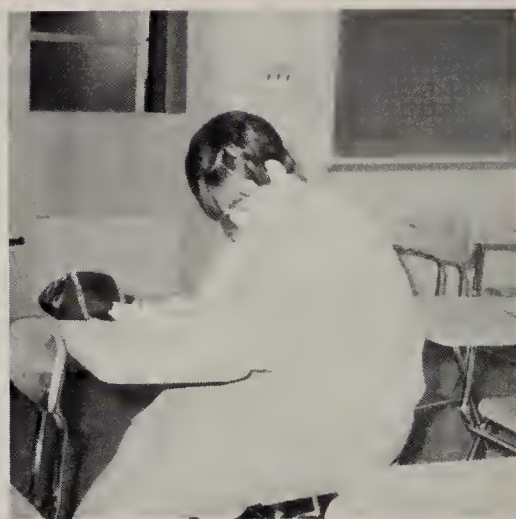

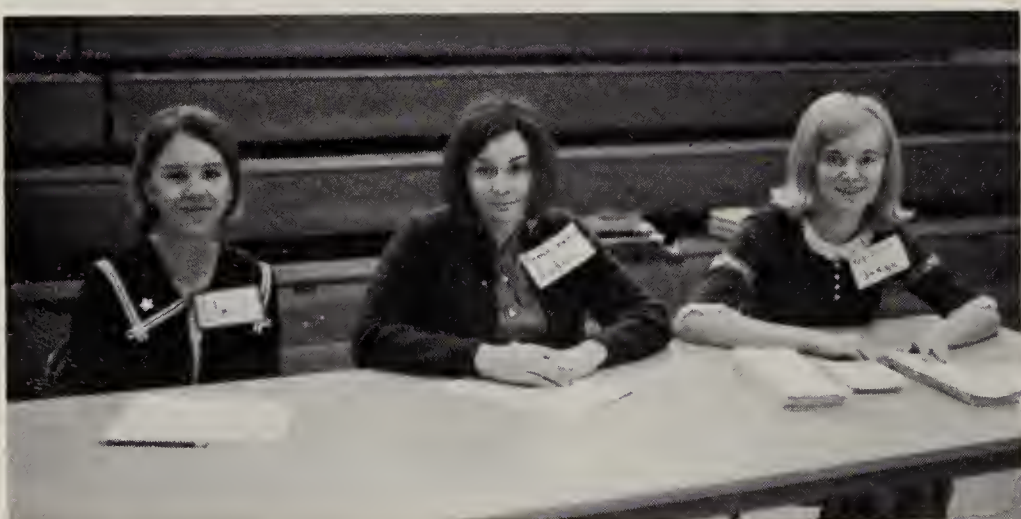

Joe plays football.

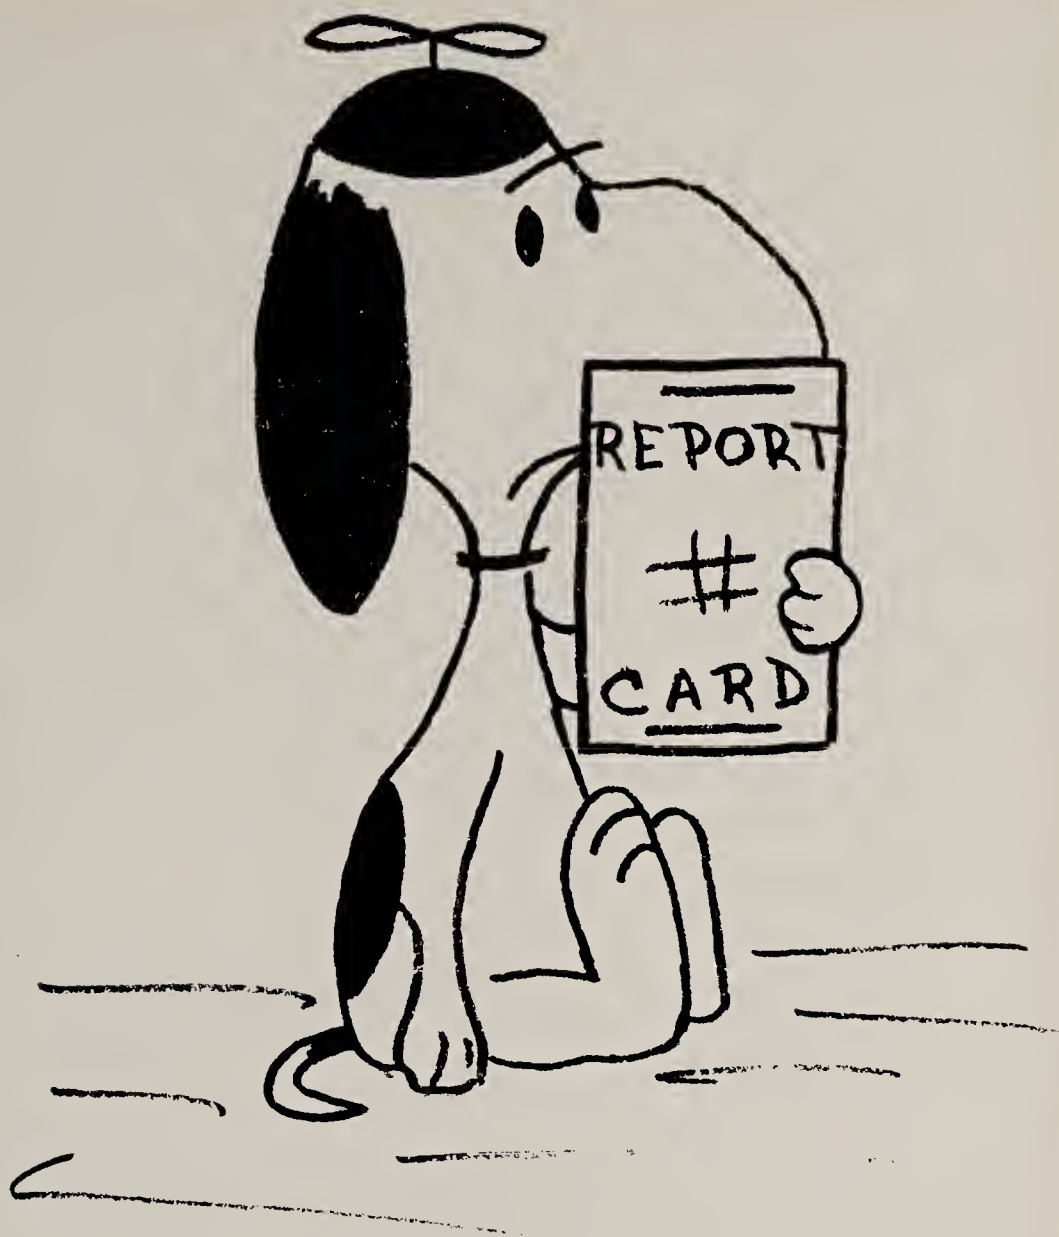

First speech in front of the student body.

Joe studying the American Language.

UNDERCLASSMEN

As the Seniors prepare to take their leave, the underclassmen eagerly await their chance to take over.

Juniors are starting to look back just a little bit to the days when 1969 seemed a century away. They remember all the parties, the ball games, the record hops, and the committees. But most of all, they look forward to next year.

Sophomores are looking forward to being upperclassmen, and some have already begun searching their imaginations in order to make the 1969 Prom the best one ever.

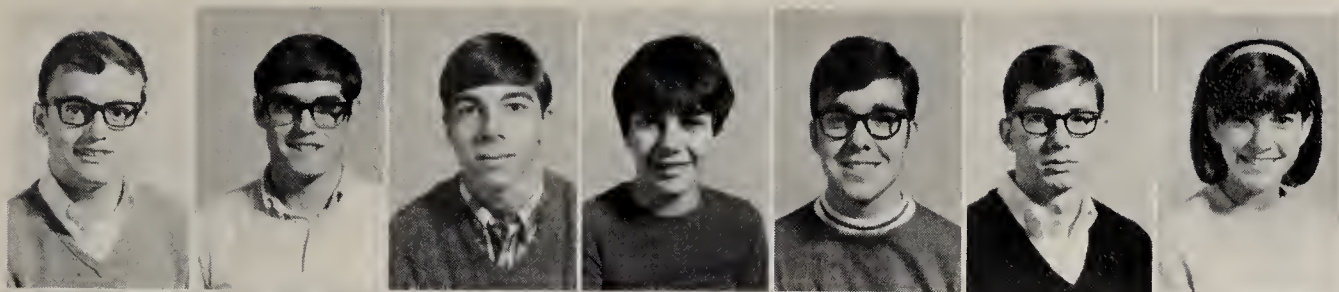

After a full year here at C.S.H.S., the Freshmen are starting to know, and to feel a part of, their surroundings. They are beginning to realize that clean saddle shoes are out, and that grade school tights just won't take the place of opaque hose.

Yes, 1968 has been a year filled with adventures, discoveries, expectations, disappointments, joys, and heartbreaks, and there will be many more to follow.

C—Men

Row 1: Denny Jerome—Secretary; Scott McIlroy—President; Denny Dysert—Vice-President. Row 2: Doug Myers—Treasurer; Chris Helentjaris—Publicist.

You'll never believe the ingredients.

The C-Men organization is an honorary club consisting of boys who have earned their varsity letters in any of the many sports offered. Among those sports are football, basketball, track, and baseball. Letters are earned by the achievement of athletes, of managers, and of trainers.

The organization promotes interest in sports events and encourages physical fitness. Another purpose of this club is the stimulation of high athletic ideals and the betterment of the CSHS sports reputation among area schools.

This club's fine sportsmanlike conduct and "will to succeed" gives them recognition as an important club.

Students at work in classroom.

The Cooperative Office Education program, in its second year at C. S. H. S., provided intensive terminal training in office education for the students enrolled. Students received one unit of credit for the double period class in the morning, taught by Mr. Eversole. In the classroom such skills as typing, filing, machine operations, and handling all facets of business communications were stressed. The students were then given adequate opportunity to utilize these skills, and, at the same time, secure valuable experience in actual official positions provided by cooperating employers.

The Diversified Cooperative Training Program is in its second year at the Celina City Schools. Among its goals are: to provide a realistic program of education plus self-help for young men and women who do plan to continue education either in college or in another institution; to provide meaningful education for students who do not plan to continue training beyond high school; to provide programs which will help young adults become self-supporting and participating members of the community.

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes is a newly established part of the Senior High program. This group is composed of letter-men associated with the C-Men's organization and boys who are working for their letters.

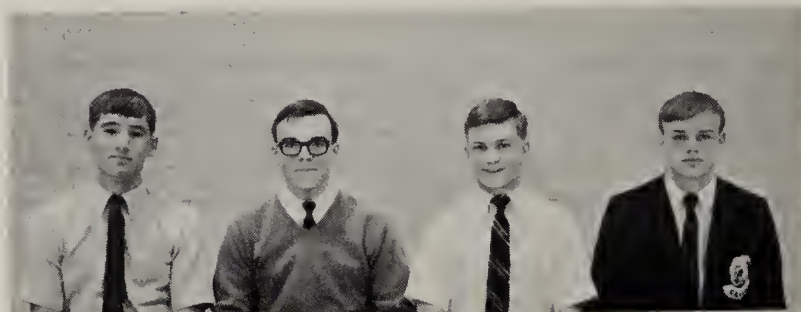

Among the activities that were scheduled this year were several movies shown to the members and their friends.

It is the purpose of this organization to develop a wholesome, competitive attitude of the sports world, and to establish a Christian atmosphere among athletes.

The Future Farmers of America is a national organization for high school boys studying vocational agriculture. The activities of this club extend past the boundaries of school leadership. The farm community is influenced by the farm safety campaigns and the good-farming practices conducted under the leadership of the participants.

Several activities are held by this organization; one major event is the election of the FFA Queen.

1967 Queen Liz Linton, Senator Frank Lausche, Mike Williams, F.F.A. President, and 1968 Queen Sarah Townsend, at F.F.A. Banquet.

Nancy Behm gives her acceptance speech as the President for 1968-69.

The Future Homemakers of America is a vocational organization whose motto is "Toward New Horizons," and whose purpose is learning to live better today in order that our lives and those of our families may be better tomorrow.

The Future Teachers Association is related to the state and national programs concerning the furtherment of the teaching vocation. This chapter is designated as the Lizzie Snyder McKim Chapter, which was first scheduled on April 6, 1951.

The association consists of juniors and seniors with a point average of 2.5 or above. A Spring session is conducted by the club, in which the members are given the opportunity to observe and then to teach classes, on elementary or on junior high school level.

A scholarship is awarded by this club on the basis of competition.

During the football and basketball seasons, the club sponsors record hops.

The main purpose of Girls' Athletic Association is to stimulate good sportsmanship and promote physical fitness.

To become a member of GAA, a girl must earn a total of 200 points by participation in the club's various activities. To remain in good standing, 200 points must continually be earned every year. This year the club had a total of approximately 210 members.

Awards such as numerals, letters, gold bars, pins, and trophies are awarded at the end of the year on the basis of the total number of accumulated points.

Interscholastic and intramural sports include volleyball, basketball, track, bowling, and softball. Plaques awarded to the winning intramural teams and the interscholastic teams will hang on the newly-created GAA wall of fame.

GAA has two money-making projects: the concession stands during football season and the Twirp Dance, where the girl asks the boy, in order to sponsor the cheerleaders and Mom and Dad's night for football and basketball.

Kazoo Band

The Kazoo Band, in its second year of existence, is composed of a group of enthusiastic boys. These unusually dressed fellows possess the determination to make their audiences laugh during the presentation of their comical skits.

Among their club possessions are some absurd-looking instruments. The boys play their musical arrangements on combs, washboards, and garbage can lids.

W/O a doubt, this band adds a tinge of thrill and excitement to our student body.

"I'm the Director!"

"Are your ears clean?"

"Positions, please!"

Ann Nevergall — Vice-President

The Library Club is an organization formed to acquaint students with library responsibilities. The membership requirements are payment of dues and also the two-period per week working schedule.

The money-making project of this organization is the Book Fair, in which the sale of paperback books helps to purchase new reference materials or library accessories.

Three social events adorn the club's activities: A Christmas bowling party, a trip to a special college, library, and the annual spring picnic.

Senior members receive special awards for their participation.

The CSHS Student Council is the governing body of the school, responsible for "voice" of all the student opinions and suggestions. Though this Council has several purposes, those of utmost importance are:

1. To promote school spirit
2. To convey student voice in school management
3. To encourage better cooperation and understanding between the student body and the faculty
4. To stimulate worthwhile student activities
5. To promote honorable conduct among students and maintain the school's good reputation

Throughout the '68 year, the Student Council sponsored the Homecoming and Sweetheart Dances, assemblies, and the American Field Service (AFS) exchange program.

The money earned is used as the basis for financing the AFS student.

The '68 year proved to be an enlightening one. The dances and activities were successes and, for these achievements, the council is sincerely thanked.

Tatler & Gazette Staff

The Tatler and Gazette are organizations established for the promotion of obtaining school readership and also relating the Celina community to the actions of the scholastic and athletic achievements.

The school newspaper, the Tatler, is prepared by the journalism classes and is published gratis, courtesy of the Daily Standard.

In the 1968 year, the staff tried to provide its readers with an adequate arrangement of features, columns, and editorials. Mrs. Diane Caywood, the journalism instructor, is the advisor to the staff. The Editor-in-Chief is Susan Reed.

Suzanne Murlin and Bill Montgomery achieve the highest award in Thespians as "Best Actress" and "Best Actor".

The National Thespian Society is composed of troupes in every state of the United States, the District of Columbia, several Canadian provinces, and a number of foreign countries. Thespians was organized for the purpose of raising standards of dramatic arts in secondary schools. Its aim is to create an active and intelligent interest in all types of theatre activities.

Troupe 473 of Celina Senior was organized in 1941. Membership in the organization is based on a system of points accumulated through work in school dramatic productions.

The troupe annually takes charge of make-up for all school productions. This year they presented "Spoon River Anthology" before the student body. The activities were completed with the annual spring banquet, at which time new members were initiated.

Twentieth Century Romans is an organization in which the Latin students learn more concerning ancient Roman civilization. They do this by participating in Latin plays, by singing songs translated into Latin, putting on Roman fashion shows, and witnessing various demonstrations explaining classical traditions.

During the year the club had an initiation of Latin I students, which consisted of slave auction and individual initiations of the slaves by their masters. Also, the club used the money collected from dues to rent a movie, which had a classical theme, and showed it to the members in the spring. The climax of the year was the final banquet in May at which the Latin I students had to serve their masters and all those present dressed and ate in the ancient Roman fashion.

The Dayton Youth Forum, sponsored by the Dayton Daily News and the Dayton Junior League, visited Celina on January 24. Its members discussed the selective service system, evoking a spirited response from the students in the audience. This year, Linda Barger was selected to be a permanent panelist, participating in similar panels in high schools throughout the Miami Valley. The Youth Forum was twelve years old this year, and its programs have been among the most popular of all the assemblies held in high schools each year.

Marching Band

The Band is divided into five bands: the marching band that plays for football games and parades, the concert band, the pep band, or "Fieldhouse Five," which plays at home basketball games, the stage band, which plays at benefits and banquets and has concerts much like the concert band, and the pit band that plays at operettas.

The new band director, Mr. Hugh Callison, a graduate of Olivet Nazarene College, has developed the bands into organizations that have brought much praise to Celina from the surrounding towns. Mr. Callison said that he hoped to double the band in size in a few years. He further stated that he thinks grade band members have great potential, and hopes to produce greater and larger bands that will acquire respect from surrounding communities.

Mr. Ransbottom

Celina's choral department consists of four choirs: Freshman, Mixed, Varsity, and Madrigal and a men's glee club known as Men's Chorale. Madrigal and Varsity often work together to form a fifth Concert Choir and the Mixed Choir and the Freshman Choir go together in the spring to put on a special spring concert. All choirs go together in the annual musical production which this year was "BRIGADOON".

Some of the choral functions this year consisted of a special concert at IMMACULATE CONCEPTION HIGH SCHOOL, the Christmas Concert, Easter Assembly, Pops Concert, and also the Graduation Ceremonies. They also for the first time cut a record with a branch of RCA Victor.

DANCES

Cherie King Reigns Over '67-'68 Homecoming

During pre-game festivities, Cherie King was crowned 1967-68 Homecoming Queen. The Bulldogs made the evening a success by beating the Kenton Wildcats 36-34. The Homecoming festivities were climaxed on the following Saturday evening, October 21, by the traditional Homecoming Dance, which was held in the gymnasium decorated as a Football Field. The music was furnished by the "O-Aces."

Last Year's Homecoming Queen, Tessie Hoffman, crowns 1967-68 Queen Cherie King. John Keister and John Bowen look on.

Prom Decoration

A surprised King and Queen. Ron Smalley and Debbie Wilson.

Senior Prom

The Junior-Senior Prom, the greatest dance highlight for the Senior class year, was entitled "A Night in the Naughty Nineties." The Junior class spent several arduous but delightful hours decorating the gymnasium for the event. The evening was accented by beautiful flowers, lovely gowns, merry laughter, and unique entertainment.

The evening began with a promenade of couples around the high school building. Later Debbie Wilson and Ron Smalley were crowned as Queen and King of the prom festivities.

Decorations for the dance centered around the styles and traditions of the Gay 90's. Entertainment was provided by the John Slonaker Sextet.

The "after-prom" included a theatre engagement, an informal dance, and finally an early-morning breakfast.

The Celina Senior High School's National Honor Society is an organization made up of only the most outstanding juniors and seniors. Members are chosen for four main qualities: scholarship, leadership, service, and character. Students must have a cumulative three point average or above to be considered.

The traditional tapping ceremony was held at the N. H. S. assembly. There were twenty-two juniors and eleven seniors chosen as new members. They were named one by one and escorted to the stage by a senior member tapped last year.

The N. H. S. Program and Tea was presented in the high school cafeteria. Slides illustrating the ideals of the National Honor Society were shown. These were followed by the presentation of membership cards, the National Honor Society Pledge, and a vocal solo. Cookies and punch were later enjoyed by all.

The National Honor Society, started by the class of 1941, has become one of the main influences of high school students.

* Hymn ----- "He Leadeth Me" ----- Bradbury

He leadeth me! O blessed tho't! O words with heav'nly comfort fraught! What-e'er I do, Wher-e'er I be, Still 'tis God's hand that leadeth me.	Sometimes 'mid scenes of deepest gloom, Sometimes where Eden's bowers bloom, By waters still, o'er troubled sea, Still 'tis His hand that leadeth me!

Refrain: He leadeth me, He leadeth me,
By His own hand He leadeth me:
His faithful follower I would be,
For by His hand He leadeth me
